9. On 21 January 1953, motor vehicles [redacted] parked in front of the storage depot of the Austria Brauerei (brewery) in Wiener Neudorf (P-49/X 37). The first four trucks were accompanied by soldiers with blue and black epaulets and carried no load, while truck [redacted] was loaded with goods including 150 pairs of gentlemen's and ladies' shoes, 65 woollen blankets, 5 small bales of gray and blue fabric and was accompanied by an officer and three men with red epaulets. 25X1
1. [redacted] Comment. The various groups of soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets partly with tank insignia in Klosterneuburg are believed to belong to the 46th Gds Mecz Regt stationed in this town. The guard detail wearing black-bordered black epaulets at the northwestern gate of the Pionier Kaserne was probably detached by the 8th Gds Engr Bn. The [redacted] truck leaving the Pionierzeugamt tends to indicate that the vehicle belongs to the 13th Gds Mecz Div. 25X1
2. [redacted] Comment. [redacted] Guard details with black-bordered black epaulets were [redacted] from the east section of the Helonen-talhof and the Doblhof Castle. They were possibly detached by an unidentified signal regiment of the Central Group of Forces. Another indication for this regiment are the telephone lines which were probably constructed for training purposes. 25X1
